save.lives.donate.organs

Journey with Aurora Adventures and SLDO in Tasmania to trek Cradle Mountain and the Walls of Jerusalem and be a part of our team raising awareness and funds to educate and ultimately increase the rate of organ and tissue donation in Australia.

The stunning walk explores Cradle Mountain and Walls of Jerusalem National Parks. See magnificent Mountain Peaks and spectacular glacial lakes. The wilderness region of Cradle Mountain is one of Tasmania's most desirable and iconic walking destinations and a treasure in its own right. With rugged mountain peaks, glacial lakes, ancient rainforests and abundant wildlife, this truly is a special place. Enjoy this 4 day walk in beautiful Cradle Mountain National Park as well as the Walls of Jerusalem, marvelling at 360 degree panoramic views of Tasmania's highest mountains.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Today we meet in Launceston and have a team briefing before we head off on our adventure. The first part of our trek will be circumnavigating the 9.4kms around crater lakes. Estimated to take 5 hours with an elevation of 450m.

Day 2: Today we will travel 12.2kms around cradle mountain eventually summiting after climbing over 750m in a hard climb of rock scrambling and boulder hopping.

Day 3: Today we will spend around 5 hours on our trek to Dove Lake

Day 4: With our longest day of 13.2kms and a hard day of trekking we will head around the Walls of Jerusalem National Park, one of Tasmania's world heritage sites. Tonight we will head back into Launceston for a team dinner and the conclusion of our adventure.
